Father Tom writes :-

First Reading: Acts 2: 1-11

The disciples have returned to Jerusalem as Jesus had commanded them, and we hear of the glorious arrival of the Holy Spirit. Naturally, the manifestation of the power of the Holy Spirit drew many to the house where the disciples were gathered. And as we heard, those who came, they witnessed the disciples speaking in all languages to the extent that no matter what language anyone spoke, they could understand the disciples preaching about God's deeds of power. The gift of speaking in tongues is manifested in such a way that while the one who is speaking in tongues may be speaking in his own language, those who are present, while they may speak five different languages, each of them can understand what is being said in their own language.

Second Reading: Romans 8: 8-17

During today's second reading, we hear that those who are in the flesh, cannot please God. There comes a time when we must ask ourselves, "Am I spending more time towards my spiritual growth than I am spending towards gaining wealth?" If our minds are continuously preoccupied with fame, pleasures and wealth versus adoring, seeking and knowing God and obeying His commandment of love towards our neighbours, then we have a serious problem that can lead to our condemnation. There comes a time when we must allow ourselves to be led by the Spirit of God in order to qualify to be called children of God. Through our faith in Christ and the Sacrament of Baptism, we received a spirit of adoption so we may qualify to be called children of God and heirs of God, joint heirs with Christ.

Gospel: John 10: 27-30

Those who keep the Words of Jesus are privileged to enjoy the indwelling of the fullness of God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Not only do they enjoy the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, but Jesus promised that the Father and He would come and make their home in them. Jesus and the Father gave us the Holy Spirit so we may be sanctified. Our sanctification is achieved through our daily personal communion with God and the Church. As we spiritually grow in Christ, God is pleased and the Church benefits. If we receive gifts as the disciples received gifts on Pentecost, it is for the benefit of the whole Body of Christ. Through the growth of the Body of Christ, we grow alongside the other faithful members of the Church.

Collect:

God, who as at this time
taught the hearts of your faithful people
by sending to them the light of your Holy Spirit:
grant us by the same Spirit
to have a right judgement in all things
and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort;
through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Please remember in your prayers :-

Those who are sick, especially: Evelyn Newbery, Margaret Tyler, Kevin McGovern, Debbie Collins, Maria Perkins, Kath Howarth, Fr Alan Cole, Maureen Benson, Elsie Young, Daniel Martin, Joyce Seals, Beryl, Richard, Sam Hudson, Fr David Maudlin, Irene Bostock, Kanta, Fr Michael Brinkworth, and Mel and Liam.
